The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL <http://127.0.0.1:8080>. The page has a dark header with tabs for "Home", "Projects", and "Contact". The main content area features a large photo of a man with dark hair and a beard, holding three small dogs (two white and one grey). Above the photo, the text "Neil Fernandez" is displayed in a large, bold font, followed by "Engineer" in a smaller font. Below this, there is a paragraph of text about the author's background and interests.

Neil Fernandez

Engineer

Hi there!

My name is Neil Fernandez and I am an Engineer working in banking, specialising in process automation and analytics.

I hold a bachelor's honors degree in electrical and computer systems engineering and have a passion for robotics. I also teach mathematics and physics outside of my profession.

I love the being in the outdoors and working with animals. I volunteer with a local wildlife not for profit to transport and care for sick and injured native wildlife.
